What's New

The new Mercedes-Benz GLC 350e 4MATIC SUV provides the optimum balance of electric efficiency and extended range for longer journeys. It offers an exceptional electric driving experience with a best-in-segment EPA electric range of up to 54 miles. Generous standard equipment includes self-leveling rear air suspension, third generation MBUX (Mercedes-Benz User Experience) infotainment with new Routines function, and much more.

All-new for 2025, the AMG E 53 HYBRID is the latest plug-in hybrid model from Mercedes-AMG, combining outstanding performance and engaging driving dynamics with electric efficiency. The AMG-enhanced 3.0-liter inline six-cylinder turbocharged engine and permanently excited synchronous electric motor generate a combined system output of 577 hp (604 hp with RACE START).

Mercedes-AMG expands its range of E PERFORMANCE hybrids with the new AMG GLC 63 S E PERFORMANCE SUV and AMG GLC 63 S E PERFORMANCE Coupe. The AMG-exclusive hybrid powertrain in both variants combines a Handcrafted AMG 2.0-liter turbocharged engine with an electric drive unit on the rear axle to deliver an impressive 671 hp combined system output and 752 lb-ft combined system torque¹.

For 2025, the AMG GT portfolio grows with the introduction of three new models. The new AMG GT 43 features a lightweight, Handcrafted AMG 2.0-liter turbocharged engine in conjunction with rear-wheel drive for a highly dynamic driving experience. The AMG GT 63 PRO 4MATIC+ offers an even sportier driving experience with agile response and heightened overall performance. Increased power, aerodynamic fine tuning and enhanced cooling contribute to coupe's exceptional driving dynamics and faster lap times on the racetrack. The powerful E PERFORMANCE hybrid drive in the new AMG GT 63 S E PERFORMANCE enables the quickest acceleration of any AMG series production model today – 0 to 60 mph in just 2.7 seconds.

The new Mercedes-AMG CLE 53 Cabriolet is the second sporty open-top model from Mercedes-AMG. It features a spacious interior and extensive standard equipment, including AIRCAP®, AIRSCARF® and active rear axle steering. The AMG-enhanced 3.0-liter inline six-cylinder engine produces 443 hp and 413 lb-ft of torque (443 lb-ft in overboost for up to 10 seconds) thanks to an exhaust gas turbocharger and electric auxiliary compressor.

The new generation Mercedes-Benz G-Class reinforces its leading position among luxury off-road vehicles. The all-new Mercedes-Benz G 580 with EQ Technology is the first fully electric G-Class model. It represents a unique fusion of tradition and progressive technology with a robust ladder frame design, four individually controlled electric motors located near the wheels, selectable LOW RANGE off-road gear reduction, independent front suspension and solid rear axle. The G 550 also impresses with improved performance and efficiency from a new electrified powertrain, elevated comfort, enhanced technology and expanded driver assistance systems.

The all-new Mercedes-AMG G 63 also introduces numerous new features and updates. The Handcrafted AMG 4.0L V8 biturbo is electrified with a 48-volt integrated starter generator (ISG) for increased performance and reduced fuel consumption. New optional AMG ACTIVE RIDE CONTROL suspension available in the AMG Performance Package and AMG Offroad Package PRO provides exceptional handling, comfort and improves wheel articulation. In addition, the AMG G 63 benefits from other updates across the G-Class model series, including the MBUX infotainment system.

Mercedes-Benz continues to develop the EQS Sedan and its portfolio of all-electric vehicles with new updates and innovations incorporated more quickly than ever before. For 2025 model year, the EQS Sedan introduces numerous upgrades with a new larger battery for increased electric range, new regenerative braking software for greater energy recuperation, refined front fascia featuring a new grille design and Mercedes-Benz standing star on the hood, as well as new standard and optional equipment to enhance comfort for rear passengers.

Customers who purchase a new 2025 model year battery electric vehicle receive a new charging offer: the choice of a $1,000 credit on their Mercedes me Charge account or a Mercedes-Benz Home Wallbox. The Mercedes me Charge network integrates over 85,000 AC and DC charging stations across the U.S. and is continuously expanding to give customers a single platform to access public chargers. The new offer accounts for individual customer charging preferences and needs to ensure customers enjoy the most seamless charging experience at home or on the go.

Customers of new 2025 model year battery electric vehicles also receive two years of complimentary charging at the Mercedes-Benz High Power Charging network. Terms and conditions apply.
